COST ACCOUNTING RECORDS (CYCLES) RULES, 1967

- G.S.R. 311.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 642 read with clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 209 of the Companies Ast, 1956 (1 of 1956), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:
- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Cost Account Records (Cycles) Rules, 1967.
 - (2) They shall come into force on the 1st April, 1967.
- 2. Application.—They shall apply to every company engaged in the production or manufacture of cycles and components thereof.
- 3. Maintenance of records.—(1) Every company to which these rules apply shall keep at its registered office or at such other place in India as the Board of Directors of the company may decide in this behalf, proper books of account containing inter-alia the particulars specified in Schedule I and Schedule II annexed to these rules relating to utilisation of material, labour and other items of cost, so far as they are applicable thereto.
- (2) Such books of account shall be kept so as to make possible the calculation of the cost of production of cycles and components thereof produced during the financial year of the company (hereinafter, in these rules, referred to as the relevant period) and the proforms containing the particulars specified in Schedule II shall be completed within three months from the date of the close of the financial year to which the particulars relate.
- 4. Penalty.—If a company contravenes the provisions of the rule 3, the company and every officer of the company who is in default, other than the persons referred to in sub-section (6) of section 209, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and where the contravention is a continuing one, with a further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day efter the first day during which such contravention continues,

SCHEDULE I

(See Rule 3)

I. (A) Raw Materials and Components purchased

Adequate records shall be maintained showing receipts, issues and balances, both in quantities and values, of each item of raw material and components required for the manufacture of bicycles. The basis on which the value of the purchases and issues have been calculated shall be clearly indicated in the cost records of, if so desired by the company, in a separate manual of procedure, if any, maintained by the company or in foot-notes or separate explanatory notes to the cost statements for the relevant period. Such basis shall be applied consistently throughout the relevant period. The values shall include all direct charges upto works such as freight and insurance. Any wastage whether in storage, transit or for other reasons shall be shown separately and the method of dealing with such losses in cost indicated in the cost records by way of footnotes or explanatory notes or in some other suitable manner.

(B) Manufactured Components

Where some of the components are manufactured by the company itself, separate records, showing the cost of manufacturing each such component or a group of components forming a sub-assembly such as frame, for, handle, brakes, pedals etc. in such details as may enable the company to fill up necessary particulars in proforma 'A' of Schedule II or in a proforma as near thereto as may be possible, shall be maintained.

Records of quantities and values of manufactured components or group of components forming a sub-assembly shall be kept on the lines on which such records in the case of raw materials and purchased components are kept. The value of such components shall be based on the cost of manufacturing them.

Any wastage, whether in storage, transit or for other reasons, shall be shown separately and the method of dealing with such loss in the calculation of costs indicated in the cost records by way of foot-notes, explanatory notes or in some

Records of quantities manufactured, accepted, and rejected shall be kept separately for each batch of components or sub-assemblies and the method of dealing with losses on account of rejection, in the calculation of costs, shall be indicated in the cost records by way of foot-notes, explanatory notes or in some other suitable manner.

II. Wages and Salaries

Proper and systematic records shall be maintained with respect to the attendance of workers and other operational staff, indicating the department or the work on which they were employed. Where payments to workers are made on piece-rate basis, the records thereof shall be so maintained as to enable assessment of wages payable to such workers. Proper record shall also be maintained in respect of all payments made for overtime work. Where any payments for incentive are made, whether in the shape of bonus or other form of incentives based on output achieved by the workers individually or collectively, such payments shall be included as part of wages.

The records shall further show separately the cost of all wages and salaries relating to various manufacturing departments or units in the factory being the amounts payable and allocated to the different departments or units and jobs or operations therein. Any wages and salaries being expenditure on additions to plant, machinery or other assets shall be allocated to the relevant capital heads in the accounts. Any idle time arising and reasons for such idle time shall be recorded separately. The method of its treatment in calculating the costs of products shall also be indicated in the cost records, or in foot-notes, explanatory notes or in other suitable manner.

If the wages are allocated to the departments or units, jobs or operations on any basis other than actuals, the method adopted in such allocation as well as the method of reconciling such wages with actuals and the method of dealing with variations, if any, shall be disclosed in the cost records or indicated by way of foot-notes, explanatory notes or in other suitable manner.

III. Stores and Spare Parts

Detailed and adequate records shall be maintained to show the receipts, issues and balances, both in quantities and value, of various items of stores required in the manufacturing process. The value shown shall include all direct charges upto works such as freight and insurance. The value of the issues and balances of stores and spare parts may, if the company so desires, be recorded monthly or at such shorter intervals as the company decides, or kept in the form of control accounts for main groups of stores, provided, in the latter case, the value of the balances according to such control accounts are reconciled periodically at least once a year with the values of the quantities shown by the quantity accounts for each item of stores.

The value of stores consumed shall be charged to the relevant head of expenditure such as manufacture, repairs to plant and machinery, repairs to buildings, township and maintenance of vehicles. The value of stores charged to manufacturing shall further be allocated to the different departments or manufacturing units and to jobs or operations therein. Similarly stores issued for capital works, such as additions to plant, machinery or other assets shall also be separated and shown under relevant capital heads. Stores shall be valued on a reasonable basis consistently applied during the relevant period. The records shall also indicate the method of valuation adopted. Any wastage whether in storage, transit or for other reasons shall be shown separately. The method of dealing with such losses in the calculation of costs shall also be indicated in the cost records, or in foot-notes, explanatory notes or in other suitable manner.

IV. Services

Detailed records shall be maintained to ascertain the cost of services such as power, fuel, water, electricity and steam produced and utilised in manuafeturing operations.

Where power is purchased, the cost of power shall include the cost of units of Power consumed and fixed charges and duties, if any, payable by the consumer. Where power, water or steam is produced by the company itself, separate records shall be maintained to show, in sufficient detail, the different items making

The records shall be so maintained as to enable the assessment of consumption of the services by the different departments or manufacturing units. In cases where the allocations to the various departments of manufacturing units are made otherwise than at actuals, the basis adopted for such allocation shall be indicated.

If the company so desires, the cost of power, fuel and other services allocated to the different departments or manufacturing units may, instead of being shown separately in the proforma concerned, be included in the manufacturing overheads of the department or manufacturing unit concerned and allocated to operations or jobs within the department or manufacturing unit as part of manufacturing overheads.

V. Depreciation

Proper and adequate records shall be maintained for assets in respect of which depreciation has to be provided for. These records shall inter-alia indicate the cost of each item of asset, the date of its acquisition and rate of depreciation. The cost of any special repairs or renovations, if added to the value of the asset concerned, shall be separately recorded indicating the basis on which such additions are made.

Depreciation chargeable to the different departments or units shall relate to the plant and machinery and other assets utilised in such departments or units and shall not be less than the amount of depreciation which may be worked out in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 205 of the Companies Act, 1956. The rates adopted shall be consistently applied from year to year.

If the company so desires, depreciation allocated to the departments or manufacturing units may, instead of being shown separately in the relevant cost sheets, be included as part of manufacturing overheads of the department or manufacturing unit concerned and allocated to operations or job within the department or manufacturing unit as part of manufacturing overheads.

VI. Overheads

Proper records showing the details of allocation of overhead expenses to the various departments or manufacturing units shall be maintained after collecting the details of all such expenses from the financial accounts. Overheads relating to manufacturing, administration and selling and distribution activities shall be distinguished from each other. The method of allocating such overheads to the various departments or manufacturing units and further to operations or jobs therein shall be clearly indicated in the records and shall be on a reasonable basis consistently applied throughout the relevant period. Where the amount of overheads allocated to the various departments or manufacturing units is determined on an estimated basis, the method by which such estimated overheads are reconciled with the actuals for the relevant period and the variations, if any, as well as the method of dealing with such variations between estimates and actuals shall be disclosed in the records.

Selling overheads comprising of selling and distribution expenses pertaining to complete bicycles sold may be shown in one lump sum in the summary statement of cost including selling and distribution expenses of bicycles sold. The share of selling and distribution expenses relating to components or sub-assemblies sold as spares, otherwise than as complete bicycles (assembled or otherwise) shall be shown separately in the cost records.

VII. Cost Statements

The cost particulars shall be filled in proformas in Schedule II or in proformas as near thereto as possible. Where the company decides to calculate the costs of each component manufactured by it, separately, the costs of the components shall be shown in proforma A and the cost of sub-assemblies like frame, frame fork, mudguard, peculis in proforma B. Where the cost of each component is not calculated but the costs of only the sub-assemblies are calculated, such costs shall be shown in proforma A and not in proforma B.

VIII. Work-in-Progress

The value of work-in-progress, if any, in relation to the various components as well as sub-assemblies or final assembly, in the process of manufacture at the end of the period for which the costs are made up, shall be calculated to represent the cost incurred up to the relevant state of manufacture and shall be shown in the relevant proforma in Schedule II.

IX. Production Records

Detailed and adequate records shall be maintained to indicate the quantities and value of all receipts, issues and balances of the different components and sub-assemblies produced by the company. The value of such items shall be based on the cost of production of the items concerned. The value of the issues or balances may, if the company so desires, be recorded monthly or at such shorter intervals as the company decides.

X. Reconciliation with Financial Books

The cost records shall be periodically reconciled with the financial books of account so as to ensure accuracy. All variations shall be clearly indicated and explained. The period for which such reconciliations are effected shall not exceed the period of the financial year of the company.

XI. Stock Verification Records

Records of stock verification shall be maintained in respect of all raw materials, components stores, spare parts and other materials kept in stock. The method of dealing with discrepancies arising out of such verification shall also be indicated in the records.

XII. Statistical Data

Adequate records containing information as to actual hours worked by each muchine or group of machines in the different departments or manufacturing units shall be maintained to show the hours worked, stoppages, if any, and the reasons therefor.

MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 4th March 1967

G.S.R. 319.—The following draft of certain rules which the Central Government proposes to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with clauses (i), (k) and (m) of sub-section (2), of section 288 of the Merchant Shipping 'Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), and in supersession of the Indian Merchant Shipping (Musters) Rules, 1956, is hereby published, as required by the said sub-section (1) for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 1st April, 1967.

Any objection or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be taken into consideration by the Central Government.

Draft Rules

- 1. Short Title, Application and Commencement.—These rules may be called the Merchant Shipping (Musters) Rules,
 - (2) They shall apply to-
 - (a) all seagoing Indian ships, wherever they may be;
 - (b) other ships while they are within any port in India.
 - Provided that these rules shall not apply to a ship by reason of her being within a port in India, if she would not have been in any such port but for stress of weather or any other circumstances which neither the muster nor the owner nor the charterer (if any) of the ship could have prevented or forestalled.
 - (3) They shall come into force on the......day of......196.
 - 2. Definitions.—In these rules—
 - (a) "Act" means the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958);
 - (b) "muster" includes a boat-drill and a fire-drill;
 - (c) "official log book" means the official log book to be kept under section 212 of the Act.
- 3. Classification of Ships.—For the purposes of these rules, ships shall be arranged in the following classes, namely:—
 - Class I—Passenger ships (other than those falling under Classes II, III and IV) engaged on international voyages.
 - Class II—Passenger ships (other than those falling under Class IV) engaged on short international voyages.
 - Class III—Unberthed passenger ships (other than ships of Class IV) engaged on international voyages.

- Class IV—Unberthed passenger ships engaged on short international voyages.
- Class V-Unberthed passenger ships engaged on coastal voyages.
- Class VI-Cargo Ships (other than those falling under Class VII).
- Class VII—Cargo Ships engaged on coastal voyages.
- Class VIII-Ships not falling under Classes I to VII.
- 4. Muster List.—(1) The master of every ship of classes I to VII shall, after the Agreement with the crew, if any, is opened and before the ship proceeds on a voyage, prepare a muster list showing in respect of each member of the crew the special duties which are allotted to him and the stations to which he shall go in the event of an emergency, including duties and stations applicable for extinguishing fire.
- (2) The muster list shall assign duties to the different members of the crew in connection with:—
 - (a) the closing of the watertight doors, sidescuttles, valves and closing mechanisms of scuppers, ash-shoots and fire-doors;
 - (b) the equipping of the lifeboats, portable radio apparatus for survival craft and other life saving appliances;
 - (c) the launching of the lifeboats and the general preparation of the other life-saving appliances;
 - (d) the muster of the passenger, if any; and
 - (e) the extinction of fire.
- (3) The muster list shall assign to the members of the stewards' department of passenger ships, their duties in relation to the passengers at the time of an emergency. These duties shall include:—
 - (a) warning the passengers;
 - (b) seeing that the passengers are suitably clad and have put on their lifejackets in the proper manner;
 - (c) assembling the passengers at muster stations;
 - (d) keeping order in the passages and on the stairways and generally controlling the movement of passengers; and
 - (e) ensuring that a supply of blankets is taken to the life-boats.
- (4) The duty of seeing that the life-boats and other life saving appliances are at all times ready for use and that the equipments in the boats are complete, shall be assigned by the muster list to one or more officers.
- (5) The muster list shall specify definite signals for calling all the crew to their boats, life-rafts and fire stations in an emergency, and for indicating when the ship is to be abandoned. Such signal shall be made on the whistle or siren and in the case of ships of Classes I and III, and of ships of Class VI of 45.7 metres and over in length, they shall be supplemented by other signals which shall be electrically operated from the bridge and other suitable places.
- (6) A muster list shall be dated and signed by the master and, if after it has been prepared, any change in the crew takes place which necessitates any alteration in the muster list, the master shall either revise the existing list or prepare, date and sign a new list.
- (7) Copies of the up-to-date (or in the case of a revised list, the latest) list shall, before the ship proceeds to sea, be posted up in several ports of the ship and, in particular, in the crew's quarters and shall be kept so posted while the ship is at sea.
- 5. Emergency signal for passengers.—(1) Muster stations for all passengers shall be appointed in case of emergency and the position of those stations and the meeting of all signals affecting passengers, with precise instructions as to what they should do in an emergency, shall be clearly stated in English, Hindi or such other languages as are appropriate, on cards posted up in their cabins, in spaces used by unberthed passengers and in conspicuous places in other cassenger quarters,

- (2) The emergency signal for summoning passengers to the muster stations shall be a succession of seven or more short blasts followed by one long blast on the whistle or siren. Such signal shall, in the case of ships of Classes I and III, be supplemented by other signals electrically-operated from the bridge and other suitable places which shall be audible throughout the ship.
- 6. Weather of Life-jacket.—Printed illustrations showing the correct method of putting on a life-jacket, step by step, and having detailed explanations in English, Hindi or other appropriate languages, shall be pasted on cards and exhibited in conspicuous places in each passenger accommodation.
- 7. Training of Crew and Passengers and Examination of Equipment.—(1) It shall be the duty of the master to arrange for the holding of musters and for the examination of equipment to the extent and in the manner required by this rule,
- (2) In ships of Classes I to IV, musters of crew shall be held weekly when practicable and, in addition, in ships of Classes I and III-
 - (a) a muster of the crew shall be held before the ship leaves her final port of departure in India; and
 - (b) a muster of the passengers shall be held within twenty-four hours after leaving port.
- (3) In ships of Class V, a muster of the crew shall take place at intervals of not more than seven days, when practicable, to ensure that the members of the crew understand and are drilled in the duties assigned to them in the event of an emergency.
- (4) In ships of Classes VI and VII, musters of the crew shall take place at intervals of not more than fourteen days, and, in the case of ships of Class VI, it shall in addition take place within twenty-four hours of the ship leaving port, if, at that port, the entire crew have been engaged or if more than 26 per cent of the crew have been replaced.
- (5) In ships of Class VIII, the master shall take steps to ensure that the members of the crew understand the uses of the life-saving and fire appliances carried on board and know where they are kept.
- (6) Whenever a muster is held on ships of Class VI, the equipment of the boats shall be examined with a view to ensuring that it is complete.
- (7) Different groups of boats shall be used in turn at successive boat wrills and the master shall ensure that every life-boat is swung out and, if practicable and reasonable, lowered at least once every four months. The musters and inspections shall be so arranged—
 - (a) that the crew thoroughly understand and are practised in the duties they have to perform, including instructions in the handling and operation of life-rafts, where these are carried; and
 - (b) that all life saving appliances and fire appliances with the gear appertaining to them are always ready for immediate use.
- 8. Entries in the Official Log Book.—The master shall record in the official log book:—
 - (a) the date on which the musters are held and the results thereof;

- (b) where a muster is not held within the periods specified in rule 7, or if only a part-muster is held, the reason for not holding the muster or for holding only the part-muster and the extent of the part-muster held;
- (c) a report of the examination of the boats' equipment made as required under sub-rule (5) of rule 7;
- (d) the occasions when the life-boats were lowered and swung out.
- 9. Penalty.—Whoever commits a breach of any of the provisions of these rules shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and, if the breach is a continuing one, with further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 1st March 1967

G.S.R. 328.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the President hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

PART I-General

- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Civil Service Rules, 1967.
- (2) They shall come into force with effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
 - 2. Definitions In these rules unless the context otherwise requires
 - (a) "absorbed employee" means an absorbed employee as defined in clause
 (a) of section 2 of the Goa, Daman and Diu (Absorbed Employees)
 Act, 1965, (50 of 1965).
 - (b) "Administrator" means the administrator appointed under article 239 of the Constitution for the Union territory of Goa. Daman and Diu;
 - (c) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission:
 - (d) "duty post" means any post specified in Schedule I and includes a temporary post carrying the same designation as any of the posts specified in that Schedule and the scale of pay of which is identical to that attached to Grade II of the Service and, any other temporary post declared as duty post by the Administrator;

- (e) "member of the Service" means a person appointed in a substantive capacity to either grade of the Service and includes a person appointed on probation to Grade II of the Service;
- (f) "Schedule" means a Schedule appended to these Rules;
- (g) "Service" means the Goa, Daman and Diu Civil Service.
- 3. Constitution of Service and its classification.—(1) On and from the date of commencement of these rules there shall be constituted a Central Civil Service to be known as the Goa, Daman and Diu Civil Service.
 - (2) The Service shall have two Grades, namely:
 - (i) Grade I (Selection Grade) (ii) Grade II-
- (3) The posts in Grade I shall be Central Civil Posts, Class I Gazetted and those in Grade II shall be Central Civil Posts, Class II Gazetted.

PART II-Authorised Strength

- 4. Strength of the Service.—(1) The authorised permanent strength of Service and the posts included therein shall be as specified in Schedule I.
- (2) The Central Government or the Administrator, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed by the Central Government, in this behalf may, by order, create duty posts for such period as may be specified therein.

PART III-Method of Recruitment

- 5. Method of Recruitment.—(1) Save as provided in rule 17, appointment to the Service shall be made by the following methods, namely:—
 - (a) not more than 50 per cent. of the substantive vacancies which occur from time to time in the authorised permanent strength of the Service shall be filled by direct recruitment in the manner specified in Part IV of these rules; and
 - (b) the remaining such substantive vacancies shall be filled by selection in the manner specified in Part V of these Rules from amongst:—
 - (i) officers who hold substantively any of the posts under the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu specified in Schedule II.
 - (ii) officers who may be considered for appointment to the Service at its initial constitution, though not actually appointed thereto under rule 17 and who substantively hold.
 - (A) any of the posts under specified in Schedule I, or
 - (B) any of the posts under the Government of Goa, Daman and Dtu, carrying the same designation as any of the posts specified in Schedule I:
 - Provided that nothing in this rule shall preclude the Administrator from holding a vacancy in abeyance, or filling it on an officiating basis in accordance with the provisions in Part VIII of these rules.
- (2) If the exigencies of service so require, the Administrator may, in consultation with the Commission, vary the percentage of posts to be filled by each method specified in sub-rule (1).

PART IV-Direct Recruitment

- 6. Competitive examination.—(1) A competitive examination for direct recruitment to the Service shall be held at such intervals as the Central Government may in consultation with the Commission from time to time, determine. The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.
- (2) The qualifications for admission to the examination and the conduct thereof shall be in accordance with such regulations as the Central Government may, from time to time issue in this behalf in consultation with the Commission.

- 7. Nature of examination.—Until the Central Government in consultation with the Commission decided otherwise the combined competitive examination held by the Commission for the recruitment to the Central Services Class I/Class II shall be the Competitive examination for recruitment to the Service.
- 8. Decision of the Commission to be final.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of the candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.
- 9. Commission to forward a list in order of merit.—The Commission shall forward to the Central Government a list arranged in order of merit of the candidates who have qualified by such standards as the Commission may determine, and of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes who though not qualified by that standard are declared by the Commission to be suitable for appointment to the Service with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration.
- 10. Physical fitness.—No candidate shall be appointed to the Service unless he is declared after such medical examination as the Administrator may prescribe, to be in good mental and bodily health and free from any mental or physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.
- 11. Inclusion in the list not to confer right to appointment.—The inclusion of a candidate's name in the list referred to in rule 9 confers no right to appointment unless the Administrator is satisfied after such inquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service and an actual offer of appointment is made.
- 12. Appointment of candidates included in the list.—(1) Subject to the provisions of these rules, the candidates will be considered for appointment to the available vacancies in the order in which their names appear in the list referred to in rule 9.
- (2) In filling the vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes respectively, candidates belonging to these communities shall be considered for appointment in the order in which their names appear in the list irrespective of their relative rank as compared with other candidates:

Provided that if a sufficient number of suitable candidates who are members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes is not available for filling all the vacancies so reserved, the remaining vacancies shall be filled by the appointment of other candidates in the list and an equivalent number of additional vacancies shall be reserved for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes to be filled on the results of the next examination:

Provided further that if a sufficient number of suitable candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes is not available as a result of the said next examination to fill all the reserved vacancies, including the additional vacancies, the additional vacancies, or such of them as are not filled, shall lapse.

PART V—Recruitment by Selection

13. Constitution of Selection Committee.—Recruitment under clause (b) of subrule (1) of rule 5, shall be made on the recommendation of a Selection Committee (hereinafter referred to as the Committee), consisting of—

Chairman

(i) the Chairman or a Member, of the Commission;

Members

- (ii) ε nominee of the Ministry of Home Aftairs not below the rank of Deputy Secretary to the Government of India;
- (iii) the Chief Secretary to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu-

- 14. Conditions of eligibility and procedure for selection.—(1) The Committee shall consider from time to time the cases of officers eligible under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5, who have served in the irrespective cadres or posts, as the case may be, for not less than two years and prepare a list of officers recommended, taking into account the actual vacancies at the time of selection and those likely to occur during a year. The selection for inclusion in the list shall be based on merit and suitability in all respects for appointment to the Service with due regard to seniority.
- (2) The names of persons included in the list shall be arranged in order of merit.
- (3) The list so prepared shall be forwarded by the Committee to the Administrator.
- 15. Consultation with the Commission.—(1) The list prepared under rule 14 shall be forwarded by the Administrator to the Commission, where consultation with the Commission is necessary or where the Chairman of the Committee desires that a reference be made to the Commission, along with the relevant records.
- (2) If the Commission considers it necessary to make any changes in the list received from the Administrator the Commission shall inform the Administrator of the changes proposed.
- (3) The list shall finally be approved by the Administrator after taking into account the changes, if any, proposed by the Commission.
- (4) The list thus finally approved shall ordinarily be in force until a fresh list is prepared for the purpose in accordance with these rules.
- 16. Appointment to Service.—Appointment to the Service shall be made in the order of merit in the list referred to in sub-rule (4) of rule 15 with due regard to the proportion specified in rule 5.

PART VI-Initial Constitution of Service

17. Initial appointment of persons to the Service.—(1) The Administrator may, at the commencement of these rules, appoint to the Service any person who at such commencement is holding any of the posts specified in Schedule I:

Provided that the appointment to the Service of those officers who belong to, or are on deputation from, a service under the Central or a State Government shall be made with their consent and the concurrence of the Department or Government, as the case may be, to which they belong.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, a person who would have held a post mentioned in Schedule I but for his being on leave or on foreign service or but for his temporary or officiating appointment to an equivalent or higher post shall be deemed to be holding such a post.

- (2) (i) For the purpose of appointment of persons referred to in sub-rule (1), the Administrator shall require the Committee to make a preliminary selection from among the officers referred to in that sub-rule of such of them who in its opinion are suitable for appointment to the Service. The names of the officers so selected shall be arranged by the Committee in the order of merit with due regard to seniority.
- (ii) The list prepared under clause (i) shall be forwarded by the Committee to the Administrator. Thereupon the Administrator shall forward the same to the Commission along with the relevant records.
- (iii) If the Commission considers it necessary to make any changes in the list received from the Administrator the Commission shall inform the Administrator of the changes proposed.
- (iv) The list shall finally be approved by the Administrator after taking into account the changes, if any, proposed, by the Commission.
- (3) Initial appointment to the Service shall be made in the order of merit of persons included in the finally approved list referred to in clause (iv) of sub-rule (2).

PART VII-Appointment, Probation, Training and Confirmation

- 18. Appointments.—All appointments to the Service shall be made to Grade I or Grade II of the Service and not against any specific post included in the Service.
- 19. Disqualification—(a) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service; and
- (h) no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service:

Provided that the Administrator may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

- 20. Special Provision for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.—Appointments to the Service made by direct recruitment shall be subject to the orders regarding special representation in the Services for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes issued by the Central Government from time to time.
- 21. Period of probation.—(1) Every person appointed under rule 5 or rule 17 to Grade II of the Service shall be on probation for a period of two years.
- (2) The Administrator may in the case of any person extend or reduce the period of probation.
- (3) A person on probation shall be liable to be discharged from service at any time without assigning any reason, provided that if he holds a lien on any permanent post under the Central Government, a State Government or Government of Goa. Daman and Diu, he shall be liable to be reverted to that post.
- (4) A person on probation who holds a lien on any permanent post under the Central or a State Government may, if he so desires during the period of probation, have the option to revert back to his parent Department or Government after giving such notice as may be prescribed by the Administrator.
- 22. Training and departmental examination—A person appointed under rule 5 or rule 17 to the Service shall undergo such training and pass during the period of probation such departmental examinations as the Administrator may from time to time prescribe:

Provided that the Administrator may exempt, subject to such conditions as it may impose, either wholly or partly from such training or departmental examinations, any person appointed under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 5 or rule 17.

23. Confirmation in Service.—A person who has been declared to have satisfactorily completed his period of probation may be confirmed in the Service.

PART VIII-Officiating Appointments

- 24. Selection for officiating appointments.—If at any time the Administrator is of opinion that the number of officers available in the list referred to in subrule (4) of rule 15 for appointment to duty posts is not adequate having regard to the vacancies in such posts, he may direct the Committee to consider the case of officers who have officiated for a period of not less than three years in any of the posts mentioned in Schedule II, and prepare a separate list of officers selected. The selection for inclusion in the list shall be based on merit and sultability in all respects for officiating appointments to duty posts with due regard to sentority. The provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3) of rule 14 and rule 15 shall apply mutatis mutandis in the preparation of the list under this rule.
- 25. Officiating appointment to the Service.—(1) If a member of the Service is not available for holding a duty post, the post may be filled on an officiating basis.
 - (a) by the appointment of an officer included in the list referred to in subrule (4) of rule 15; or

- (b) if no such officer is available, by the appointment of an officer included in the list prepared under rule 24.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, if the exigencies of service so require, a duty post for which a member of the Service is not available, may after consultation with the Commission be filled on an officiating basis by the appointment of an officer belonging to a State Civil Service on deputation for such period or periods ordinarily not exceeding three years.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, where appointment to a duty post is to be made purely as a local arrangement for a period not exceeding six months such appointment may be made by the Administrator from persons who are included in the list prepared under sub-rule (4) of rule 15 or rule 24 or who are eligible for inclusion in such a list.
- (4) Any appointment made under sub-rule (3) shall be reported by the Administrator to the Commission forthwith.

PART IX-Miscellaneous

- 26 Posting of members of the Service.—Every member of the Service shall, unless he is appointed to an cx-cadre post, or is otherwise not available for holding a duty post owing to the exigencies of service, be posted against a duty post under the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu by the Administrator.
- 27. Appointments to duty post of the Service.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in sub-rule (2), every duty post shall be held by a member of the service or an officer appointed to officiate under Part VIII of these rules.
- (2) A post included in Grade I of the Service may be held by an absorbed employee who is not a member of the Service If on the date of commencement of these rules he was holding such a post otherwise than on a purely temporary basis, and a post included in Grade II of the Service may be held by an absorbed employee if on the date of commencement of these rules he was holding such a post otherwise than on a purely temporary basis.
- 28. Seniority.—The Administrator shall prepare a list of members of the Service arranged in order of seniority as determined in the manner specified below:—
 - (i) in the case of persons appointed on the result of competitive examination, or by selection under clause (h) of sub-rule (l) of rule 5, seniority in the Service shall be determined by the order in which appointments are made to the Service. Provided that—
 - (a) persons recruited on the results of the competitive examination in any year shall be ranked inter se in the order of merit in which they are placed at the competitive examination on the results of which they are recruited, those recruited on the basis of an earlier examination being ranked senior to those recruited on the basis of later examination;
 - (b) the relative seniority inter se of persons recruited by selection—shall be determined on the basis of the order in which their names—arranged in the list prepared under rule 14.
 - (ii) The seniority of members of the Service appointed at the initial constitution of the Service in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of these rules, shall be determined ad hoc by the Administrator in consultation with the Commission, due regard being had to the post previously held by them under the Government's concerned and the length of service rendered by them therein:
 - Provided that in the case of persons appointed under the provise to sub-rule
 (1) of rule 17, if two or more persons belong to the same parent service or Department are thus appointed, they shall be ranked inter se in the order of their relative seniority in the parent service or Department, as the case may be.
 - (iii) The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion under rule 5

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE

New Delhi, the 22nd February 1967

- G.S.R. 338.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regularising the method of recruitment to the posts in the Directorate of Commercial Publicity under the Ministry of Commerce, namely:—
- 1. Short title and commencement.—(i) These rules may be called the Ministry of Commerce (Directorate of Commercial Publicity) Recruitment Rules, 1967.
- (ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official gazette.
- 2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the post as specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed hereto.
- 3. Number, Classification and scale of pay:—The number of posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in Column 2 to 4 of the said schedule.
- 4. Method of Recruitment, Age limit and other Qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to the said post shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit specified for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of any person belonging to Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe or other special category, in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualifications.—(1) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the post, and

(2) No woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the post.

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule,

6. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of posts or persons.
